The Coordinating Committee met at Dawg's Café at 7:00 A.M. on Thursday, January 9, 2014. Joe Kamler presided.

The attendance was recorded. Minutes from the previous meeting were approved.
Committee reports were as follows:

HOUSING – The HOP funds have been released and already have been utilized.

FOUNDATION – The annual meeting was held earlier this week. Sherri Schlegel has reached her term limit. Chris Sissel has agreed to serve on the board. The next grant deadline will be March 31.

EDUCATION - The school would like to have a community service day and would like to have projects to work on . The 1st semester had a lot of successes i.e. – preschool and daycare. A new football field concession/storage building is being planned for this summer.

PARKS & REC – Tree marker stakes still need to be installed. The play set for the community building will begin to be planned in March.

RECYCLING – A new trailer has been delivered. Three high school boys and Judy Lichti staffed the center in January.

WILDLIFE – Hunters are in the area.

YOUTH SERVICE CLUB – Signs are to be posted at bank, Walter Ins. And city office.

COMMUNITY CENTER BUILDING – Bookings are still coming in. The fitness center activity has been steady and strong.

Unfinished Business –
