The Lord's Prayer in Aramaic: Aramaic with King James and Midrash-style translations

Abwoon d'bashmaya Our Father, Who art in heaven

Nitquadesh shemoke Hallowed be Thy name te te malkutahk Thy kingdom come Netwasuvhanak Ikana, d'bashmaya auf b'ara Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven

havlon lackman desukanana mana Give us this day our daily bread washbuchlan howabain whactahene and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive

Ikana dauf kinnan shwo henya hiyabain those who trespass against us wela toklan lenusuna, ela patzan minbysha and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil metol deloc ay malkutak waheykla wateshbuktah For Thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory for ever and ever l'amin, ameyn Amen

Better Translation from Aramaic:

Creative Unity

make a place in my heart that is holy then come, come, and let me feel this ripe connection with all that is Let my actions be timely, in tune with the interconnected web of life.

Let us all find nurturing wisdom for our bodies, minds and spirits

Forgive us our unripe actions as we must forgive the unripe actions of others, and help us to stay true to our shared path of mind and heart for this sense of unity is our truest sovereignty, our personal and collective I

CAN, awe-inspiring

through all our days

So let it be.

meanings from Neil Douglas-Klotz's Prayer of the Cosmos)
